BOY DROWNED .- A lad about thirteen years of age named Robert Mills, while playing on a raft, half a mile below Millcreek, about ten o'clock day befor resterday, fell into the river and was drowned. He was, we believe, an only child, and the parents, the mother particularly, suffers severely from the loss of her boy. His body has not yet been recovered.

INDEPENDENT ORDER OF ODD FELLOWS OF CINCIN NATL-We learn from 'Squire Harris that the Order is so poor that it can not afford to insert the celebra tion advertisements in the DAILY PRESS. Now the fact is, gentlemen, if you are so, we will take pleasure in inserting your advertisements without charge; but we believe you are misrepresented. We happen to know that a nobler, abler set of men than the I. O. O. F.'s of Cincinnati does not exist.

A sale of lots is to take place at Greenwood, nea the Lockland station of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton R. R., twelve miles distant from this city on Monday next. The location of Greenwood is re-presented as being pleasant, and the surrounding country attractive in the highest degree. Those whish to attend the sale will be accommodated with free passage to and from Greenwood, as may be see by reference to our advertising columns. Messrs. Cooper & Stokes, Auctioneers.

THE FIRE YESTERDAY AT NOON .- A fire broke on resterday about noon, in the fourth story of th milding situated at No. 240 Main street, owned by E. P. Langdon, and occupied by Nickie & Bieler as eather store. The damage was quite small, both t he house and the goods, and the loss, which is les han $500, is fully covered by insurance. The fire was thought to have been the work of an incendiary is the floor upon which it originated was unoccur pied, and it seems impossible that a spark could reach it in any other way.

PERSONAL. - Major Joseph W. Burke, a young man f studious habits, carnest, cultivated, talented and devoted to his profession, who graduated with high honors at the Law School, a few days since, was yes terday admitted to practice at the bar. We do not loubt that the qualities of head and heart which characterize the Major, will make him esteemed and respected among the members of the profession he has chosen, and will guarantee for him that success

THE first annual ball of the Tailors' Protective Sci ciety of Cincinnati will take place at National Hall. Vine street, on Monday evening, April 25th, and mothing shall be left undone by the managers to ender it one of the most brilliant fetes of the seaso we anticipate a large attendance, not only of the members of the above society, but also of such mem bers of other trades as are friendly to the principles o otective union. We understand that the above so icty is in correspondence at present with every ity and town in the Western country, for the nur ose of forming and uniting the respective societies of their trade with that of the Queen City of the West. Tickets can be had at this office.

ESCAPE FROM THE NINTH-STREET STATION-HOUSE. Yesterday morning a couple of persons who repre-ented themselves as sisters of Joseph Baxter, the fellow who committed the robbery on Fifth street, a night or two ago, went to the Ninth-street Stationnouse and asked permission to see him, which was granted, after which they sent the officer in charge to get him some coffee. While he was absent, they some means found the keys, unlocked the cells and set him at liberty, together with Colscott, who and another prisoner, charged with the same offense named Conant. The latter persons have been retaken and returned to their cells, but Baxter has no since been heard from. We sincerely hope that just tice may overtake both him and his liberators. Since the above was written we have learned that the two females-Emma Baxter and Susan Frazerthrough whose cunning the prisoners escaped, have been arrested, and will have an examination thi norning, before Judge Lowe. This affair can only be regarded as another proof of the self-marificing

ASTRONOMICAL. - One of our city cotemporaries re ords the humiliating fact that though the adjourne neeting of the Astronomical Society was advertised in several of the papers to take place on Wadnes day, at the Merchauts' Exchange, at noon, only the President and Mr. Observer were in atten-dance at the proper hour. These gentlemen after waiting - but, alas! in vain - in expectation of a third person to arrive, began at last to bemonto each other, in ischrymose words, the heartles apathy of their fellow members of the Cincinnati ceestial community. When somewhat tired of this occupation, the two gentlemen wisely concluded that it would be prudent for them to adjourn to a more convenient season. We should like to whisper a "short little" query into the ear of the President, and it is this, "Did you advertise the meet ing in the Daily Press?" If the answer be in the negative, then that neglect of yours, Mr. President, is sufficient to account for the absence of the mem-bers on Wednesday. In future, therefore, if you wist to secure a good attendance, inform your members of your desire through the advertising columns of the DAILY PRESS-the "People's Paper."

AMUSEMENTS.

NATIONAL THEATER. - At this popular place of amusement, M'lle Louise Wells is still the reigning star. Her daring feats on horseback, in connection with her gracefulness and smiling face, draw fine houses, to speak from a financial point of view, and please them too. To-night will be enacted "Juck Sheppard," M'lle Wells appearing as the hero in all his daring exploits and "hair-breadth 'scapes." The beautiful drama of "The French Spy" will conclude the performance, with the fair Louise in the principal MELODEON HALL .- Madama Bosco, with her won derful tricks, surprising transformations, and lavish distribution of jewelry, still attracts crowds to the Melodeon Hall. The gift feature of the performance is a bons fide affair, and is regarded with quite as much interest as the changing of a handkerchief into a gold watch, or a potato into a live cat. There will e another performance this evening.

Wood's Theater.—Notwithstanding the exceedingly disagreeable state of the weather last night, the Florences draw quite a fair house to this establishment. Mrs. Florence, with her deep contralto roice, sings her songs sweetly, and in every thing she undertakes pleases her audiences. She is a decided favorite, and will remain such so long as representations of Yankoe character continue to amuse or in-terest any. To-night Mr. Florence, with his rich brogue, will appear as Paddy, the Piper, and as Barney O'Connor, two characters to which his powers are admirably adapted. As this is their last appearance but one previous to their departure for Europe, and, moreover, has been set apart as the benefit of Mrs. Florence, we trust her friends will give her a bumper at parting which will be a pleasant memory during the whole time of her absence. Let the house

BOLD ATTEMPT TO OBTAIN GOODS BY FALSE PAR-TENSES.-A young man of good address and genteel appearance, day before yesterday, went to the Hardware establishment of Tyler Davidson & Co., on Main street, below Fourth, and ordered about one hundred and fifty dollars' worth of files, which he stated were for Booth & Co., who are also Hardware merchants, and do business at the corner of Pearl and Walnut streets. He then left the store and sent a dray for the goods; but, in the mean time, an jorder came by one of the attaches of the establishment of the last-named firm for some teeth of a horticultural machine of some kind, when inquiry was made in egard to the files, and a boy sent to follow the dray, which was a strange one, to its destination. The drayman, however, by some means, became aware that he was followed, and, fearing he would be detected, drove to the establishment of Booth & Co., as he had been directed. The truth then became apparent that this young man had made a bold attempt to obtain a lot of goods by false representations, which would have been successful but for the circum stance, which no one could have forescen, that Booth & Co. really needed some articles from the firm from whom he, in their name, had made his pretended purchases. So well-laid a scheme for swindling has not come to our knowledge for some time, and the person who attempted to perpetrate it has certainly a talent which might make him respected if he would employ it in the performance of good deeds. He has escaped, thus far, the vigilance of the Police Court .- Offenders seem to be scarce, and the siness before this Court seems to be falling off. A few cases of importance were called yesterday, and were disposed of in quite a short session.

A German, who had been found lying at the corne of Fourth and Elm streets asleep, and in a bestial state of intoxication, but whose nerves he avowed could not sustain the shock of seeing his name in connection with the affair in the newspapers, complained that he had had his pocket picked of a portemonnaie containing fifteen dollars in money, and some valuable papers; was fined $5 and coats.

Patrick King, charged with having stabbed a mar named Coleman Connelly, on last Sunday night, at the corner of Race and Front streets, was held to bail in the sum of $100 for his appearance to answer th charge at the next term of the Court of Common

A German named Augustus Garber, was also held in $500 bonds for an examination to-morrow, charged with cutting with intent to kill a man named Charles Fair, in the vicinity of the Brighton House, night before last. A wedding occurred in the neighborhood, and Garber was one of a party of serenaders; the complainant was annoyed and said so, when a quarre ensued, which resulted in cutting Fair in the face with a knife. The wound is of a painful but not seri-one of those sad occurrences, which will continue we presume, until the people cease to use camphene took place on Wednesday evening, at a house on Race street, near Liberty. A young girl named Helen Bell. who resides with her uncle at the place above named, was sitting at a table upon which a servant-girl camed Margaret Brady was engaged in filling a camphene lamp. By some means the fluid took fire, and, in the constornation this caused, was spilled upon the young lady, while the flames, being speedily communicated to her dress and limbs, burnt her severely about the lower part of the body and abdo men. Margaret, the servant, was more seriously injured than the other, for her wounds are about the neck, arms, breast and face, and will not only confine ser for a long time to her bed, but will also, in all probability, di-figure her for life. Both the victime of this exceedingly sad affair will recover, but they are injured so badly that it will poison all the pleas

DAYTON AND COLUMBUS. - It is to us no small source of gratification, that our subscription lists for those cities continue steadily to increase. We thank our friends for this mark of their confidence, and we trust our course for the future will be such as to inspire in ur patrons a stronger feeling for the prosperity of the Pages—the only Independent paper in Cincinnati Now that we have attained to such a respectable circulation in those and other cities, we are naturally led to anticipate the immediate approach of the tim when we shall be required to devote certain portions of our columns to the "Wants," "Business Notices," and other advertisements of their inhabitants; inleed we can see no reason why that demand has not already been made. On this subject we shall not enlarge, knowing that a word to the wise is sufficient Those who know where their interest lies, will send ANOTHER GRAND MUSICAL FESTIVAL for the benefit of the Public Library, by the pupils of the Intermediate and High Schools, assisted by the Philharmonic Society, will come off at Pike's Opera-House on Sat urday evening next. The programme will include the "Star-Spangled Banner" and the "Marseillaise Hymn." There will not be any reserved seats on this ccasion, and in order to protect ticket-holders, tickets will not be sold at the door until after seven o'clock, and none but those having tickets will be admitted before that hour. The sale of tickets will be limited ons to avoid another great crowd. The doors will be open for ticket-holders at half-past six o'clock. Old tickets will not be received at the deor, but they will be exchanged by calling at the Office of the Public Schools in the Mechanics' Institute Building.

THE regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Christian Union was held last evening at the rooms of the Society, No. 25 West Fourth street. The Chair was occupied by Henry Thane Miller, Esq., and the Secretaries present were Mesers. W. T. Perkins and H. Payne. The special order for the evening—proposed alteration of the constitution of the Society-was brought up and discussed; the proposition was nowever, lost. A motion was then made for recon sidering the subject at the next meeting, which being put to vote, was passed. Reports from the Executive Committee, Treasurer and Corresponding Secretary were read and formally received. The meeting concluded by religious exercises.

MEETING OF THE FRIENDS OF SABBATH SCHOOLS .- A secting of the friends of the Sabbath Schools, who ere very few, if we may judge from the number in atendance, was held yesterday afternoon at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian Union. Mr. A. Wooduff delivered an address, and gave a history of the Mission Sabbath School work, and of the systematic isitation as pursued in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, and gave also a brief account of the move nents of the friends of Sabbath Schools in France. The address was prosy and uninteresting, and the neeting adjourned without transacting any business.

MAN SHOT IN A BAGNIO. - About nine o'clock law fennings was shot in the right arm by a man whose name we could not learn. He, it appears, was some what intoxicated, and was abusing one of the unfor tunate inmates of the establishment, when some per-son stopped up and interfered. Jennings drew a 'toife and made an attempt to stab him, when he irew a revolver and fired three times, one of the hots only taking effect. The man then escare i from the house, white Jennings was taken home by his friends. No arrests have as yet been made.

BAD AFFATS-A WOMAN ACCIDENTALLY SHOT BY HUSBAND .- A woman named Elizaboth Schebbele, wife of a teamster who resides near Cummins ville, was accidentally shot, while preparing to re tire, about nine o'clock on Wednesday sight; and although the wound will not prove fatal, 12 is quite painful, and will confine her to her room for some time. She was, we learn, about stepping into bed, when a pistol, heavily loaded, which her husband was in the act of hanging upon a nail in the wall, was discharged, the ball entering her broast and inflicting a frightful wound. The only reason why the shot did not prove immediately fatal was the fact that it entered the mammae diagonally. She has to become a mother. STREETS,-The loss of Mesers, Simmons & Knost, the proprietors of the planing-mill which was destroyed by fire early yesterday morning, at the corner of Court and Linn streets, will amount to $6,000 or $5,000, on which there is an insurance of $2,000.

been married, we believe, but a short time, and what makes the circumstance still more painful, and adds

new pangs to those she already suffers from the wound, she is enceinte, and expected in a short time

Adjoining this establishment was the bedstead and chair factory of Mr. Holscher, whose loss will reach, in all probability, $3,000; insured for only $500. A horse worth about $150, belonging to this gentleman, perished in the flames.

By this sad affair three families—instead of fifteen

s our types said yesterday—were driven from their comes. It was one of the most destructive fires which has occurred in our city for some time, and this was entirely in consequence of the inflammable material with which the buildings were occupied.

SUICIDE OF A CINCINNATIAN .- A man named Elijab Wagner, who formerly resided in Cincinnati, but who for some time back has been switch-tender at Morrow, in the employ of the Little Miami Railroad Company, committed suicide by hanging himself at that place on Tuesday last. The only cause of the in-tense suffering which led the unfortunate man to tear aside the barrier which separates the from the life hereafter, that can be assigned by his most intimate friends, is want of employment. No one, though he often asked it, would give him privilege to toil, and thus, sick at heart, he chose rather to die than be a burd u to his friends. As a little child, weary with the cares of the day, sinks into the arms of night and sleeps, so he sleeps now in the arms of death. Let us hope that he also "rests from his labor."

day was known among the Catholics as "Maundy-Thursday," so called from the Mandatum Anthem, taken from John xiii., 34, and was the anniversary of the Last Supper. Every good Catholic yesterday considered it his duty to kneel down in three different churches, or three times in the same church, as a confession of his belief in the Trinity. The altars in the Cathedral and different churches of the city were garlanded with flowers, and presented quite a beautiful appearance. To-day is Good-Friday, and will, of course, be observed by this denomination of Christians all over the world.

ARREST OF A PICEPOCKET .- A young man named James Howard was arrested and lodged in the Hammond-street Station-house yesterday morning for picking the pocket of a man named John Watkins, while he was looking at the fire 240 Main street. Mr. Watkins felt a hand in his pocket, and, turning round, caught the fellow, but he scattered the money he had aken all over the pavement, which ruse was success ful, and he escaped, but being closely pursued, was subsequently taken by Officers Colby and Rainey, and confined in the Station-house to await an exam instion before the Police Court this morning.

THE CONCERT LAST NIGHT.-The concert for the cenefit of the Mission Schools, at Smith & Nixon's Hall last night, was hardly so well attended as the attraction merited. This could not have been from a lack of interest in the cause which the concert was given to benefit, but was, no doubt, brought about by the lagoon-like streets and weeping akies which throughout the entire day almost disgusted pedestrians. Still the concert passed off satisfactorily, and those who heard it will, for a long time, have a memory which will be a pleasure as often as it will recur

ANOTHER LECTURE BY REV. HENRY BELLOWS .- This of the success of Wednesday night, to deliver a second ecture, under the auspices of the Young Men's Mer-cantile Library Association, which will take place this evening at Smith & Nixon's Hall, The subject-'Direction; or, How you Face"-is unique, and will no doubt prove quite as interesting as the first. UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT .- In the District Court in Admiralty, yesterday, in the case of Bichard W. Keys et al. versus the steamer Ambaysador. growing out of a collision between that boat and the Joseph Landis, a decree was entered for the libelants. The amount was not named, but will be probably $12,000 or $15,000. the extreme inclemency of the weather, last night, the meeting of the Young Ladies' Lyceum of the Wesleyan Female College was indefinitely postponed. Due notice will be given when the next exhibition will take place, when we hope the skies may smile upon them the extent that last evening they frowned,

Mr. Brady said that the proposition made yesterday by the government to the counsel of Mr. Sickles to admit the confession of Mrs. Sickles as evidence, is rejected by the defense Francis Doyle, to explain how and under what

We never heard of these papers until they were produced on the stand. It has been shown by Mr. Pendleton that the prosecution knew of these facts almost immediately after they came into his hands and that he communicated them to Mr. Car-prosecution that these papers were at any time found on the person of Key. We now propose to show the circumstances under which they were found, and then trace how they came int the hands of the witness.

Mr. Phillips argued against the line of examination proposed. There never would be an end to the trial if such a course was permit-

Mr. Brady was willing that the original should go to the jury, but he objected to the translation being given to it. The letter is written in a sort of cipher, which consists in the substitution of one letter for another—"y" for "a," for instance. It is supposed to be s letter from Mrs. Sickles to Mr. Key.

The defense do not wish to have it made public, in order to prevent any further shame to Mrs. Sickler. The Court finally ruled that the letter was

I took Mr. Sickles from Attorney General Black's to his own house on the day when Key was killed; and I was in the hall of the house while Mr. Sickles went into the library and held a conversation with persons; then he came out and was going up stairs when I stopped him, and told him he must not go up unless he would promise not to do any injury to his wife; he said he had no such intention, drink of brandy; none of those present took any except Mr. Sickles and Mr. Butterworth. Mr. McBlair sworn-I went to Mr. Sickles' house on the 27th of February, about fifteen minutes after the tragedy. Mr. Sickles appeared calm, though apparently soffering internally; I always found him calm; I had never seen him before in any difficulty; the policemen said that they were afraid of a mob, and that some one might shoot Mr. Slekles.

Major Barrett, of Washington City, testi-fied—I was present at Mr. Sickles' house on the afternoon that Key was shot; I found some policemen there; also Mr. Wooldridge, Mr. Sickles himself and other persons; I went into the library where I saw Mr. Sickles at a bookcase; while we were in the back parlor Mr. Sickles met Mr. Walker and said to him, a thousand thanks, my dear friend, for calling to see me under such circumstances. He then threw himself on the sofa and wept; he spoke of dishonor to his house and to his child; his grief lasted about five minutes; it was a hearty cry, and he could be heard in his room.

Miss Ridgley's testimony—I was present at Mr. Sickles' house when he came there from

Later from California, Mexico and Havana. New Onleans, April 21.—The steamship Coatracoalcos, from Minititlan, on the 18th inst., with dates from San Francisco to the 5th inst., arrived here this evening.

A ferry-boat at San Francisco exploded on the 4th inst., causing the death of six persons and wounding eighteen others. Business at Sau Francisco was dull. The markets were overstocked. Haxall flour $9 50. The amount of specie taken down by the Panama steamer is unreported.

The latest intelligence from Mexico via Minititlan is unimportant. It was reported that Miramon had left for Cordova with a bodyguard, and would make an attempt to reach the Capitol. The steamship Cahawba, with dates from Havana to the 18th inst., also arrived here to-night. There were no signs of the invasion from New York. The reports of an expedition having left were discredited at Havada.

Sugar dull and all qualities had slightly declined. Sterling exchange firm at 112; exchange on New York par@/4 premium.

New Movement Against Sonora. St. Louis, April 21,-An editorial in the Republican this morning calls attention to a secret movement among the Pike's Peak emigrants for an organization to take possession of Sonora and Chibushua.

A consultation has been already held at St. Joseph, and perhaps at other points on the border. Prominent parties here are cognizant of the movement.

Captain Mowry, bearer of American dis-patches from the American Consul at Guyamas, passed here yesterday, en route for Washington. He left Guyamas, March 25th. He reports the arrival of an express from Cosola Sinaloa the day previous, with the news of an engagement at that place on the 14th between Pesqueira and Col. Guasso, in which the latter was routed, with the loss of his guns and five hundred men taken prisoners. Pesqueira marched immediately for Mazat-lan, which was being guarded by a small force, but will probably be taken without difficulty.

Sonora was in a constant state of revolution.

From Washington. WASHINGTON, April 21 .- The Constitution of this morning says that no Minister was ever treated with more kindness and consideration by his government than the late Minister to Mexico, Mr. Forsythe, whose suspicions have converted this open and frank kindness into covert hostility.

It was obviously out of the question to send him back as Minister to the Liberal Govern-ment of Mexico, simply because, whether rightfully or wrongfully, he is understood to have been the first foreign minister to recognize the anti-constitutional revolution and the usurped government of Zuleaga. manifest reasons, must have rendered him obnoxious to the Constitution party and the Liberal Government of Juarez.

The exposition sustains the recent statement in the general newspaper dispatch.

From Kansas.

LEAVENWORTH, April 21 .- The official majority in favor of a Constitution is 3,881. Gov. Medary has issued a preclamation for the election of delegates to a Constitutional Convention, to assemble at Wyandotte in June.

County Conventions have been called through-out the Territory to perfect party organizations. Efforts are being made to consolidate the Op-position to the Democracy, which will probably be successful. Both parties will make strenuous efforts to obtain control of the Constitutional Convention.

NEW YORK, April 21 .- Tre U. S. steamer Harriet Lane arrived here last night from Montevideo. She left Montevideo on the 12th of March, and made the run thence to Bermudas in eleven days, thence to Barbadoes in nine days, and from the latter port to this city in nine days. The ship Chamberlain was totally destroyed by fire at Buenes Ayres, March 1st. She had a cargo of hay, and it is supposed she was set on fire purposely. No lives were lost.

Death of Hon. S. Ballet. HARRISBURG, April 21.—Samuel Ballet, a member of the House of Representatives from Carson County, died in this city last night. He has been sick for two or three weeks past, The deceased was about thirty-four years of age, and was married during the recent session of the Legislature.

NEW OBLEANS, April 21 .- The steamship Arizonia, from Brazos, on the 18th inst., has arrived here bringing $253,000 in specie. The Liberals under Garcia had taken San Luis
